I actually expect it back today some time. Annette found a small typo and then there was a weird thing happening with one of the HERO citations that they have to fix. I'll keep you posted. We are close. Thanks.

I am going to assume it is still Ila as I have not been told otherwise. Thank you for the update. BTW- if typing has this for more than the normal allotted time please let me know. This one needs to get to R9 and California as soon as possible.

Yes, she did. I'm just waiting for typing and then I will send on to Ila. Ila is still the one to clear, correct?
